V.C. HERO

PRAISES ZAM-BUK.

USED BY SELF AND COMRADES DURING RETREAT from MONS.

Private ROBSON, of the 2nd Royal Scots, and facsimile of his gallantry V.C. FOR conspicuous gallantry in rescuing a wounded N.C.O. and attempting to save another comrade under dead fire, Pte. H. H. Robson, No. 11340, of the 2nd Royal Scots (Lothian Regiment), has been awarded the Victoria Cross. Writing from Glencorse Barracks, Glencorse, Scotland, the brave soldier states: "Zam-Buk is my favourite healing balm. I have used it for the last four years, and on my embarkation for the Front I carried a supply with me. I used Zam-Buk on several of my comrades who were wounded, and it proved its great healing power—so much so that it was not necessary for them to leave the firing-line. During the retirement from Mons, a lot of men, including myself, were complaining of different sores. Having a pot of Zam-Buk with me, and knowing of my past experience with Zam-Buk, I recommended it to my comrades. They all used the balm, and could not express in words the relief it gave them. Whenever a draft goes out to the Front, I always recommend them to carry a pot of Zam-Buk in their haversacks."

EVERY HOME NEEDS ZAM-BUK.

A SYDNEY FAMILY'S SKIN TROUBLES & MOTHER'S GRATITUDE TO ZAM-BUK

"My children, Leslie and Gwendoline, have often had need for Zam-Buk," says Mrs. Sylvia B. Crighton of Camden-street, Newtown, Sydney. "In one instance they suffered from over-heating of the blood, causing blisters; large blisters terribly irritating, forming on the body, and they could hardly keep their hands off them, and made them bleed. It was Zam-Buk that cooled them down, and gave them relief, taking all the irritation away, and healing where the blisters had broken."

Zam-Buk also it has been used, and for this it has been very successful. For bids also we have used Zam-Buk, my husband having had a number form on his arm."

Zam-Buk is unsurpassed for cuts, bruises, scalds, burns, abrasions, abscesses, eczema, rashes, back pains, bad legs, festering sores, black-mass, sore faces, inflamed pustules, boils, sprains, ticks, bee stings, piles, ulcers, chafing, rashes, skin troubles. Zam-Buk can be obtained from all Chemists and Stores for 1/- or 2/-, or direct (post free) from C. E. FULFORD (Australia), Ltd., Pitt-street, Sydney.

LAW REPORT.

HIGH COURT.

(Before their Honors Mr. Justice Barton, Mr. Justice Isaacs, and Mr. Justice Rich.)

QUINIOLOGIST CARE SETTLED.

Mr. Windeler, K.C., and Mr. Maughan, instructed by Messrs. W. A. Windeler and William Maughan, M.A., appeared for the Darbarski of Perth, plaintiff, in support of an appeal from a judgment of Mr. Justice Gifford, of the Supreme Court, in which Mr. Shand, K.C., and Mr. H. M. Mason, instructed by Messrs. Barry and Norris, appeared for the respondents. Theodore Charles Trautwein and David Price, for the defendant.

Mr. Shand was addressing Court in regard to the evidence, when, after consultation with the other respondents' solicitors, he announced he had nothing further to say. The case had been settled.

Mr. Windeler assented.

The terms of settlement were not disclosed to the court.

SUPREME COURT.

IN BANCO.

(Before the Chief Justice, Mr. Justice Sly, and Mr. Justice Ferguson.)

DISPUTE OVER TIN-MINING COMPANIES.

Mr. Leverrier, K.C., and Mr. Mocatta, instructed by Messrs. Perkins, Stevenson, and Co., appeared for the White Crystal Mining Company, and Mr. and Mrs. Mr. H. G. Edwards instructed by Messrs. Cecil A. Coghlan and Co. for the Carpathian Tin Mining Company. The case was stated by Mr. Leverrier that the White Crystal Company was practically the appellant, and the questions for consideration were, whether, under an order made by Mr. Justice Harvey, was stated for the determination of the Full Court, by way of a final award, a sum out of the net profits between two companies, dated August 17, 1916, by which the White Crystal Company, which owned a claim on the land of the Carpathian Tin Mining Company, was to crush ore from the latter's mine and extract the tin therefrom. Disputes having arisen as to whether the terms of the agreement had been carried out, were referred to Mr. J. Bowes Wilson, barrister-at-law, as arbitrator. He found in favour of the respondent, and the amount of the sum of the agreement submitted by the counsel, and awarded it £1500, less £665 as owing to the White Crystal Company. The question for consideration was whether the White Crystal Company had, under the agreement, entitled 41 per cent. of the net profits.

The court was concerned with the question of law as to the right meaning to be applied to the terms of the contract itself, read in the light of the circumstances, and the question of law as to the award of the arbitrator.

The questions submitted for the opinion of the Court were:—(1) Whether the award of the amount of the net profits was correct? (2) Whether the compensation raised by Mr. Leverrier, K.C., in paragraph 7 of the special case, was correct; or (3) Whether the amount mentioned in the same paragraph, was correct?

The Court answered the first question in the negative, the second in the affirmative, and the third in the negative, and of the motion to be paid by the Carpathian Company.

APPEAL AGAINST INCOME TAX.

Mr. J. G. Cameron, K.C., and Mr. Clive Teare, instructed by Messrs. Alfred Harmsworth and Hemmings, appeared for Eric Price (a public officer of W. F. Martin and Co., Ltd.), in support of an application for a writ of certiorari of the Court of Appeal, and Mr. A. L. Thomas, instructed by the Crown Solicitor (Mr. J. V. Tillett) for the Commissioners of Income Tax.

The question for the determination of the Court was, whether the compensation raised by Mr. Leverrier, K.C., in paragraph 7 of the special case, was correct; or (3) Whether the amount mentioned in the same paragraph, was correct?

The Court answered the first question in the negative, and the third in the affirmative, and of the motion to be paid by the Carpathian Company.

JAFFA

BRITISH GAIN. AUSTRALIANS TO THE FORE.

THREE RUSSIAS. A HOUSE DIVIDED. PETROGRAD MAY STARVE.

LONDON, Nov. 18. An official message from Palestine says: "The Australian and New Zealand mounted force on Saturday occupied Jaffa without opposition."

The enemy appears to be continuing his retirement northwards.

The YMCA in London has received a telegram asking them to erect a Y.M.C.A. hut at Jerusalem.

The occupation of Jaffa by the Australians and New Zealanders crowns a week of wonderful success in Palestine. It provides the army with an important port of supply for the purpose of relaying the single railway line connecting Palestine and Egypt.

It is believed in military circles that General Allenby's sweeping drive has thrown the Turks into complete confusion.

The decisiveness of his repeated strokes has seriously embarrassed, and possibly defeated, Fakhreddin's plan.

It is understood that the great Turkish base at Aleppo is sending out reserves in order to relieve the situation. If it remains to be seen whether they will assist General Allenby on the northern exit of the Sharon Plain, or push on towards Jerusalem.

ENGLAND'S FORESIGHT.

A GERMAN TRIBUTE.

An Amsterdam message says the "Vossische Zeitung" points out that the conquest of Palestine is of the greatest strategic and political value. It protects the Suez Canal, and assures England of a route from Capetown, via Cairo, to India. It cuts right through Germany's Middle Europe circle.

"England's policy," says the paper, "is to lead centuries ahead. The possession of Mesopotamia gives her the most important outlets which will supply England, Indian, Australian, and Eastern shipping, and make her independent of home coal. Mesopotamia will be colonised by the simple Indian population. England is not attacking Palestine merely with the idea of drawing the Jews to her flag. If the English conquer Palestine our whole oriental policy will be seriously hit. The insurrection in Arabia was carried out by means of English gold, and was a prelude to this really great idea."

WESTERN FRONT.

TRENCH RAIDS.

LONDON, Nov. 18. Sir Douglas Haig on Sunday night reported: "A strong raiding party this morning entered certain points in our trenches in the neighbourhood of Gommecourt Farm, south-east of Péronne. We counter-attacked across the open, and ejected the enemy after sharp fighting."

Our trench south-eastward of Havrincourt were raided early this morning.

FRENCH FRONT.

A French communiqué on Sunday night reported: "Eighty great raids this morning caused certain points in our trenches in the neighbourhood of Gommecourt Farm, south-east of Péronne. We counter-attacked across the open, and ejected the enemy after sharp fighting."

The French seized the Kremlin, but were expelled by the troops of the Committee of Public Safety. Subsequently, they recaptured it, and were again expelled. The killed and wounded by Wednesday numbered 2,000, mostly civilians.

The Bolsheviks also the Red Guard, composed mainly of youths. The Bolsheviks armed with 15 field guns, and kept up a continuous bombardment in the centre of the city, killing peaceful citizens in their homes.
